

Travel Oregon has partnered with Dean Runyan Associates to provide the Travel Industry with a monthly "Oregon Travel Barometer." The Barometer is a quick-read dashboard of key travel indicators designed to show changes in the metrics that affect Oregon's tourism industry. Where applicable there is a deeper dive available for each indicator, so you can review the data in greater detail.

April 2018 Report Highlights

Following are a few observations from the April 2018 Oregon Travel Barometer report:

- Both Oregon's statewide lodging demand and revenue showed small growth in April 2018 (Lodging Demand: +0.2% YOY; Lodging Revenue: +1.8% YOY).
 - Among all Oregon regions Central Oregon region showed the strongest growth in both lodging demand and revenue.
 - Year-over-year growth in Oregon's lodging demand and revenue in April 2018 was lower than that of regional and national averages.
- The West Coast (except California) average gasoline prices in April 2018 were 15.1% higher than a year before.
- The total number of deplaned passengers at Portland International Airport was up (4.1% YOY) in April 2018 versus April 2017.
- The number of international deplaned passengers at PDX slightly increased (0.5% YOY) in April 2018 vs. April 2017.
- Employment in Oregon's Accommodation & Food Services sector was up 2.4% in April 2018 vs. April 2017.

The Oregon Travel Barometer will be updated on a monthly basis (with lag time to compile the indicators). We will notify you via the Travel Oregon Industry eNewsletter as each new report becomes available (go to www.traveloregon.com/industry to subscribe).
