

Ginger Jensen

Project Manager

Ginger is the newest member of the team, transitioning from an internship completed with the company in early 2022. She supports DRA's project managers with data collection, aggregation, and management.

Before working at DRA, Ginger worked at an investment firm as a Client Service Associate. She holds a bachelor's degree in marketing from Portland State University and is currently pursuing a post-bachelor's degree in economics with a Graduate Certificate in Natural Resource Economics.

Project Experience

Manager of Transient Occupancy Tax Data

- California
- Oklahoma
- Oregon
- Colorado

Project Manager for Sub-County Travel Impacts

- Yuma, AZ
- Sedona, AZ

Research Analyst

- Lake Worth Sports Complex Feasibility and Planning
- Seattle Children's Museum Market and Financial Analysis
- Economic Impact of Reintroducing Sea Otters to the Southern Oregon Coast
- Ocoee Whitewater Center Market and Feasibility Analysis (in progress)
- Ford Idaho Center Market Analysis (in progress)

Past Work Experience

Stifel

Client Service Associate
2021 - 2022

Intel

Community Engagement Intern
2019 - 2020

Education

Portland State University

B.S. of Marketing
B.S. of Economics

Certificates and Awards

Portland State University

Master's Certificate
Environment and Resource
Economics