

Grant Runyan

Research Analyst

Grant is experienced with survey analysis and assists the Dean Runyan Associates team by gathering and preparing data for reports. He serves as the primary point of contact for many feasibility and master plan studies. Grant holds a bachelor's degree in political science from American University.

Recent Project Experience

State Travel Impacts

- New Hampshire (lead analyst)

Sub-County Travel Impacts

- Williamsburg, VA
- South Lake Tahoe, CA
- Oceanside, CA
- Lodi, CA
- Truckee, CA
- Temecula, CA

Event Impacts

- Economic Impact of Cheyenne Frontier Days
- Economic Impact of College National Final Rodeo

Feasibility Studies and Custom Projects

- Cherokee Nation Park master plan
- Nebraska Passport Program

Past Work Experience

Peak Condition
Administrative Assistant
2014- 2017

Education

American University
B.S. Political Science